EXCEL Convention Events Worksheet

DIVISIONS
Junior Division: 9-12 on December 31st of current school year
Senior Division: 13-18 on December 31st of current school year

DRESS CODE KEY (see guidelines for details)

- 1. Casual or Athletic Wear see guidelines for approprate wear
- 2. Business Casual comfortable but professional
- 3. Dress Attire suit jacket & tie for boys/dress clothes for girls
- 4. Costume costumes allowed

Category

This award is for demonstrating excellence in many categories.

To be eliqible contestants must enter at least one event

- in each of the following categories:
- 1. Academics
- 2. Arts
- 3. Platform Performance (Music or Persuasive/Dramatics)
- ENTRY RULES/LIMITS

 1 Early Entry: Due March 25, Maximum 6 per student
- 2 Athletics: Maximum 6 per student
- Students entering athletics must enter 2 or more non-athletic events
- 3 Performance: Maximum 6 per student
- 4 Display/Non-Performance: Maximum 6 per student

Dress Category

NOTE: Maximum 18 events per student.

HOW TO REGISTER & PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

www.oregonexcel.com/convention

- 1 Use the worksheet below to choose your competitions.
- Read the guidelines carefully to make sure you understand the description, requirements and judging criteria for each category entered.
- 3 Register online. There will be a "Parent Permission" section on the registration form. The entry fee is $40. Registration is open from January 1st February 28th.
- 4 On or before March 25th, fill out a judge form online for each of your entries. No forms needed for Performance Competitions (121-125), and Athletics (701-734). For performances you will also need to upload any soundtracks, music, scripts or lyrics.
- Early entries are also due on March 25th with the judge form. This includes writing, technology and photography.

Description

5 Prepare your entries. All display entries must be checked in at registration with a display card or label that is firmly attached and clearly visible.

Example label: Student Name

City, State

Division (Junior/Senior) Category (i.e. Oil Painting)

COMPETITION CATEGORIES

_	Out	egory	ACADEMICS	DIESS	Calegor
			ACADEMICS
Wri		Early Entry)
		Essay Writing	Paper with an evangelistic, Biblical, Christian growth, patriotic, or historical theme. 500-700 words.		1, 4
	_	Poetry Writing	Lyric or narrative poem, folk or literary ballad with a Christian, patriotic, Biblical, evangelistic or historical theme. 8-30 lines.		1, 4
		Short Story Writing	Fictional composition based on real experience, purely imaginary, or a fictionalized report of a historical happening. 600-1,000 words.		1, 4
Tec	hnolo	ogy (Early Entry)
	111	Web Site Design	Create a fully functioning site with a clear practical purpose. Judged real-time over the internet. 1-2 students.		1, 4
	112	Multimedia Presentation	User-directed, stand-alone presentation conveying an academic concept, promotional information, or theological truth. 1 - 2 students.		1, 4
	113	Video Lesson	Create an interesting, memorable and useful video using video clips, music and/or graphics.		1, 4
	114	Graphic Design	Create an original design using Adobe Photoshop (or supported software). Promotional material, logo, book cover, etc.		1, 4
	116	Podcast - Audio	Contestants present an original audio podcast program. May be dramatic, interview or monologue style. 1 - 4 students.		1, 4
	117	Podcast - Video	Contestants present an original video podcast program. May be dramatic, interview or monologue style. 1 - 4 students.		1, 4
Per	forma	ance Competitions		•
		Bible Trivia Team	Team of two students who can collaboratively answer questions on Bible knowledge.	2	3
		Spelling	Study the official word list in the guidelines. Complete a spelling test at convention.	2	3
		Checkers	Single elimination checkers tournament.	2	3
		Chess	Single elimination chess tournament.	2	3
		Crokinole	Single elimination crokinole tournament	2	3
Scie		Display
		Science-Collection	Classification and display. Examples: rocks, insects, leaves, etc. Man-made objects are not allowed.		4
		Science-Research	Develop a hypothesis, perform an experiment, record results, write your conclusion, and exhibit your work.		4
		Science-Engineering	Build electronic equipment, optical devices, solar energy converter, etc., using scientific principles to perform a task.		4
		Science-Theoretical	An exhibit displaying a discussion of a scientific principle, concept, technique, or theory using visual aids.		4
	104	Ocience-Theoretical	ARTS
	004	I Caranilas Day Bayahad
		Ceramics, Dry Brushed	Clean and kiln-fire, paint with stain then dry brush over top.		4
		Ceramics, Glazed	Clean and kiln-fire, paint with glaze, then fire again.		4
		Ceramics, Stained	Clean and kiln-fire, then paint with stain. May be coated with a spray sealer.		4
		Clay Sculpture	Clay sculpture is the process of shaping clay by hand or with tools to create intricate forms like figurines, then baking to harden.		4
		Modeling Clay Painting, Oil	A soft, pliable clay available in a range of colors, good for creating clay creations that don't need to be baked or hardened. Oil painting in realistic style framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism, image of Christ or color-by-number.		4
		U,			4
		Painting, Watercolor	Watercolor painting in realistic style framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism, image of Christ or color-by-number. Acrylic painting in realistic style framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism, image of Christ or color-by-number.		4
		Painting, Acrylics
		Drawing, Sketching	Original sketch framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism or image of Christ. Original pen & ink drawing framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism or image of Christ.		4
		Drawing, Pen and Ink Drawing, Pastels	Original pastel drawing framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism or image of Christ.		4
		Drawing, Pastels Drawing, Chalk/Charcoal	Original paster drawing named and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism or image of Christ. Original chalk/charcoal drawing framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism or image of Christ.		4
		Drawing, Colored Pencils	Original colored pencil drawing framed and ready for display. No abstract or surrealism or image of Christ.		4
		U,
		Drawing, Cartoon Woodworking, Power Tools	Original cartoon drawing framed and ready for display. No inappropriate humor or portrayal of the image of Christ. Entry made entirely of wood except for screws and hinges. Contestant may use power tools and hand tools. No small craft items.		4
		Woodworking, Hand Tools	Entry made entirely of wood except for screws and hinges. Contestant may use power tools and hand tools. No small craft items. Entry made entirely of wood except for screws and hinges. Contestant may use only hand tools. No small craft items.		4
		ŭ.	Entry made entirely of metal. Contestant may use any type of power tools needed. No small craft items.		4
	_	Cake Decorating, Traditional	Entry must be a single cake with traditional frosting and be entirely edible. A brief explanation of the project should be included.		4
		Cake Decorating, Fraditional	Entry must be a single case with radictional rossing and be entirely edible. A brief explanation of the project should be included. Entry must be a single case with fondant frosting and be entirely edible. A brief explanation of the project should be included.		4
		Cake Decorating, Cupcakes	One dozen cupcakes in foil or paper baking cups. A brief explanation of the project should be included.		4
	_	Floral Arranging	An arrangement of dried or silk flowers. A brief explanation of the project should be included.		4
		Place Setting/Table Décor	Setting for 4 on a 3x3 square table. Should include a menu, place settings, décor and an explanation of the project.		4
		Scrapbook Page	8 ½ "x11" or 12"x12" single or double scrapbook page with photos and embellishments in a page protector. No templates or digital pages.		4
		Repurpose It!	Repurpose any item. Must be able to withstand intended use. Include a project report and photo of original item.		4
		Miscellaneous Art	This category is used for any art form that is not included in any other category.		4
		Miscellaneous Art - Lego	Entry must be built using LEGO building blocks. Must be contestant's own design built completely from scratch, 30" x 30" or less.		4
	414	I IVII 30 CII I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I	TENT & Mast be bank asing EEGO banking blocks. Mast be contestant a own acaign bank completely normalizable. No X at 01 1635.		. 4

		PHOTOGRAPHY (Early Entry)
	B&W Character Trait Picture	A B&W photo that portrays one of the forty character traits listed in guidelines. Trait must be listed on display card attached to photo.		1, 4
JU2	B&W Scenic	A B&W photo of a picturesque outdoor setting or landscape. No closeups of flowers. (These should be entered in Wildlife.)		1, 4
303	B&W Still Life	A B&W photo of a picturesque indoor arrangement of objects.		1, 4
	B&W Wildlife	A B&W photo of animals, birds, flowers, insects, etc. No domestic animals.		1, 4
	B&W Photo Journalism	A B&W photo telling a story of a person, place, or thing that could be used as an article; i.e., current events.		1, 4
	B&W Studio Portrait	A B&W posed studio portrait of a person or group of people.		1, 4
	B&W Candid Shot	A B&W photo captured without creating a posed appearance. Avoid prior preparation or distracting of the subject while taking photo.		1, 4
	B&W Special Effects	A purposeful use of objects, lighting, lenses, or other equipment to create an illusion or unusual effect. Include an explanation.		1, 4
	Character Trait Picture	A photo that portrays one of the forty character traits listed in guidelines. Trait must be listed on display card attached to photo.		1, 4
	Scenic	A photo of a picturesque outdoor setting or landscape.No closeups of flowers. (These should be entered in Wildlife.)		1, 4
	Still Life	A photo of a picturesque indoor arrangement of objects.		1, 4
	Wildlife	A photo of animals, birds, flowers, insects, etc. No domestic animals. A photo telling a story of a person, place, or thing that could be used as an article; i.e., current events.		1, 4
	Photo Journalism			1, 4
	Studio Portrait Candid Shot	A posed studio portrait of a person or group of people. A photo captured without creating a posed appearance. Avoid prior preparation or distracting of the subject while taking photo.		1, 4
	Special Effects	A purposeful use of objects, lighting, lenses, or other equipment to create an illusion or unusual effect. Include an explanation.		1, 4
010	Opedial Effects	SEWING/NEEDLECRAFT		1, 7
	Garments, Separates	Shirts, skirts etc. Submit pattern, report with project summary, photo of somone wearing the garment. Must be modest.		4
	Garments, One Piece	Dresses, formals etc. Submit pattern, report with project summary, photo of somone wearing the garment. Must be modest.		4
	Garments, Repurposed Clothing	Repurposed clothing Submit report with project summary, before photo and after photo of somone wearing the garment. Must be modest.		4
	Counted Cross-stitch	No stamped cross stitch. Pictures must be framed. Back must be accessible for judging. Ex: tablecloths, place-mats, pictures, samplers		4
	Crochet	Submit pattern and report. Ex: baby afghans, shawls, tablecloths, bedspreads, dresses, sweaters, baby garment sets		4
	Embroidery Knitting	Decorating fabric with embroidery floss or thread. Back must be accessible for judging. Pictures must be framed. Submit pattern and report. Machine knitting not allowed. Submit pattern and report. Ex: baby afghans, shawls, tablecloths, bedspreads, dresses, sweaters, etc.		4
	Quilts	Quilts may be machine or hand constructed. Submit pattern and report. Minimum size: 36" x 36"		4
	Home Décor	Anything made from fabric used in home décor. No Latch-hook or Punch & Sew. Ex: scarves, tablecloths, runners, pillows, placemats		4
	Miscellaneous Sewing	This category is saved for any needle & thread project that does not fit any other category. No latch-hook or Punch & Sew.		4
		MUSIC
arly Ent
	Song Writing	Contestant writes an original song with a Christian, evangelistic or Biblical theme. Sheet music and recording required.		1, 4
	Music Arranging	Students create a new arrangement of a pre-existing melody with updated harmonies or formats for voice, keyboard, or instruments.		1, 4
ocal			-
	Vocal Solo	Singers who do not accompany themselves, with the focus solely on their vocal performance.	3	3
	Vocal Group	Two or more singers who do not accompany themselves, with the focus solely on their vocal performance.	3	3
	strumental
	Vocal/Instrumental Solo	Singers who accompany themselves, with only the vocal performance judged and the intrumental portion excluded from scoring.	3	3
	Vocal/Instrumental Group	Two or more singers who accompany themselves, with only the vocal performance judged and the intrumental portion excluded from scoring.	3	3
strume	Piano Solo	Piano selection which is Christian, patriotic or classical. Sheet music required.	3	3
	Piano Duet	Two contestants playing the same piano. Sheet music required.	3	3
	Solo-Woodwind	Flute, Piccolo, Oboe, English Horn, Clarinet, Bassoon, Saxaphone. Accompaniment limited to piano, drums, and bass guitar. Sheet music requ.	3	3
	Solo-String (Plucked)	Harp, classical guitar, banjo, mandolin. Accompaniment limited to piano, drums, and bass guitar. Sheet music required.	3	3
	Solo-String (Bowed)	Violin, viola, cello, and string bass. Accompaniment limited to piano, drums, and bass guitar. Sheet music required.	3	3
	Solo-Brass	Trumpet, French Horn, Tuba, Cornet and Trombone. Accompaniment limited to piano, drums, and bass guitar. Sheet music required.
			3	3
538	Solo-Miscellaneous	Accordion, marimba, xylophone, drums, etc. Amplified instruments permitted. Accompaniment limited to piano, drums, and bass guitar.	3	3
538	Instrumental Group	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required.
538 543			3	3
538 543 peech	Instrumental Group	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS	3	3 3
538 543 peech 601	Instrumental Group Oral Argument	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines.	3 3	3 3
538 543 peech 601 602	Oral Argument Oratory	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing.	3 3 3 3	3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance.	3 3 3 3 3	3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing.	3 3 3 3	3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon.	3 3 3 3 3	3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching s Expressive Reading	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3	3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612	Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching s Expressive Reading	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4	3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching s Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 615	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 615 622 623	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching s Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 615 622 623 624	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4 3	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 615 622 623 624 626	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3 4 3,4 3 4 3,4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 peech 601 602 603 604 611 612 613 614 615 622 623 624 626 630	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4 3	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 615 622 623 624 626 630	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3 4 3,4 3 2,4 2,4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 peech 601 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 622 623 624 626 630 627 629 629 630 641	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. In the object is to an interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3 4 3, 4 3 2, 4 2, 4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 peech 601 603 604 ramatic 611 612 613 614 622 623 624 626 630 627 629 629 630 641	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3 4 3,4 3 2,4 2,4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloguism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. In the object is to an interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3 4 3, 4 3 2, 4 2, 4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 Deech 601 602 603 604 611 612 613 614 6145 622 623 624 630 gning 641 642 cack & I	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3 4 3, 4 3 2, 4 2, 4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male)	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 2,4 2,4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Female)	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3 4 3, 4 3 2, 4 2, 4	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching s Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Male)	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 3,2,4 2,4 2,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Female)	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 3,2,4 2,4 2,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1,4 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Male) 400-Meter Run (Male) 400-Meter Run (Male) 400-Meter Run (Male)	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 2, 4 1 1 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching s Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Male) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 1600-Meter Run (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female)	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible based story, May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A THLETICS	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 1 1, 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female) Physical Fitness	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 2, 4 3, 4 1, 1 1, 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female) Physical Fitness nnis	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant thooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. T-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. ATHLETICS The contestant must do the exercises in the following order (1) pull-ups, (2) push-ups, (3) sit-ups. Places determined by points.	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 2, 4 3, 4 1, 1 1, 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Male) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Relay (Female) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female) Physical Fitness nnis Table Tennis	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible based story, May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is vividly revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. A THLETICS	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 2, 4 3, 4 1, 1 1, 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Male) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female) Physical Fitness nnis Table Tennis	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Contestant spresent an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. ATHLETICS The contestant must do the exercises in the following order (1) pull-ups, (2) push-ups, (3) sit-ups. Places det	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 2, 4 3, 4 1, 1 1, 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543 peech 601 602 603 604 613 614 612 623 624 626 630 630 694 701 702 703 704 705 707 708 8able Te 711 hooting 731	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Run (Male) 400-Meter Run (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female) Physical Fitness nnis Table Tennis Archery, Unlimited Free Style	Two or more contestants with any combination of instruments. Sheet music required. PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tels, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Character of a protagonist is widdy revealed in an original monologue writen and performed by the contestant. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip syrac a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. ATHLETICS The contestant must do the exercises in the following order (1) pull-ups, (2) push-ups, (3) sit-ups. Places determined by points. ATHLETICS A preliminary games o	3 3 3 3 3 3 2,4 3,4 3,4 3,4 2,4 2,4 2,4 1 1 1 1 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3
538 543	Instrumental Group Oral Argument Oratory Famous Speech Preaching S Expressive Reading Poetry Recitation Illustrated Storytelling Dramatic Monologue Dramatic Dialogue Clown Act Ventriloquism Puppets Puppet Evangelism One-Act Play/Skit Dramatic Signing Solo Dramatic Signing Team Field 100-Meter Dash (Male) 100-Meter Dash (Male) 400-Meter Dash (Female) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Male) 400-Meter Relay (Female) Physical Fitness nnis Table Tennis	PERSUASIVE/DRAMATICS Contestant writes and delivers an original oral presentation similar to that a Christian attorney might present. Examples in guidelines. Contestant chooses a topic and presents an eloquent and effective speech with a good thesis that is directed to the emotions and convincing. Contestant chooses a speech, sermon, or article written or delivered by another person, usually of public significance. Contestant must prepare and deliver an original sermon. A memorized interpretation by an individual of a dialogue between two or more characters, or a reading in the first person. Contestant chooses a poem to recite. Poem must be memorized. No singing or costumes. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Contestant tells, from memory, a Bible-based story. May use visual aids, costume, sound effects, or any "prop" that enhances story. Contestant spresent an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. Two contestants present an original dialogue or an adaptation of a written dialogue between two individuals. This is a one-person act intended to be with the traditional "Circus Clown" appearance. Costume and at least 4 hand-held props required. The object is to animate a dummy in such a manner as to present a lifelike act and convince the audience that the dummy is actually talking. 1-2 puppeteers provide their own background and equipment. Recorded sound effects may be used. Verbal communication must be live. Any number of contestants may act out a script, lip sync a song or have a person outside of a stage interact with a puppet. Up to 5 contestants present a play with two scenes illustrating a Christian theme. A musical interpretation in which the message of a song is vividly portrayed in interpretive form through the use of sign-language. ATHLETICS The contestant must do the exercises in the following order (1) pull-ups, (2) push-ups, (3) sit-ups. Places det	3 3 3 3 3 3 2, 4 3, 4 3, 4 3, 4 2, 4 2, 4 3, 4 1, 1 1, 1	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3